

US SAILING Development Clinic Open for Aspiring Olympians in the Laser and Radial

Written by Tracy Usher
Wednesday, 28 September 2011 15:03 -

Online Registration Now Open

Portsmouth, R.I. (September 28, 2011) – US SAILING’s Olympic Sailing Development Program has added an additional Laser and Laser Radial Open Clinic to the schedule of upcoming opportunities for young sailors aspiring to be the best in the U.S. The clinic will be hosted on November 12-13, in Houston, Texas, and run by US Sailing Team AlphaGraphics coaches Luther Carpenter and Mike Kalin. Interested sailors should register online by November 4 and submit their four best sailing results from 2010-2011. Scroll down to the clinic and click on the two links: <http://sailingteams.ussailing.org/Events/Training.htm>

For more information about the 2012 US Sailing Development Team selection and expansion, including its mission, benefits, training/competition schedule and selection guidelines, please visit: http://sailingteams.ussailing.org/Selection/2012_US_Sailing_Development_Team.htm